Verse 1:

G Gsus G G Gsus G
With the dawn we rise and sing, hallelujah King
G Gsus G G Gsus G
Lifting up our melodies, bowing down at Your feet
C D Em
As the sun sends forth its rays,
C D Em
let our lives speak forth Your praise
C D Em
This morning shows our Savior reigns,
C D Em
oh what joy to walk His ways
C D G Gsus G
oh what joy to walk His ways

Verse 2

The heat of day may bear us down threatens with a scornful frown
But our Lord shall lift us up we shall drink the victor's cup As storms and famines rule the land, we will trust God's gracious hand Though toilsome may be the day,
oh what joy to walk His ways
oh what joy to walk His ways

Interlude:

Verse 3

Though evening's rest seems far away we shall hope rejoice and pray
The searing day shall soon be done, our pilgrim's race shall soon be won No fear of night shall stir our hearts, for heaven is our happy lot
The darkness pierced by Christ's bright rays,
oh what joy to walk His ways
oh what joy to walk His ways
oh what joy to walk His ways
