

The Martyr's Hymn (Die For Thee)

words and music by Ben Zornes

©2011 Bravehearted Thirstysoul Music ASCAP

Key of A

Guitar Capo@7 plays in D

Verse 1:

A D A D
No merit of my own, by which I could stand
A D A D
The merit of thy Son, by the Father's sacred hand
A D A D
Such a rich price to pay, for beggars and thieves
A D A D
Thy grace to bestow, love far beyond my reach.

Refrain:

C#m D A E
He dying once to save, hath overcome the grave
C#m D F#m D E A
Because Thou died for me, I gladly die for Thee

Verse 2:

To live I first must die, and by dying I find life
He spared not His Son, and I'm healed by His stripes
My debt has been paid, by the pearl of Great Price
My body and my blood, I pledge to my Christ

Bridge:

D A/C#
In Thee my heart rejoices, oh for a thousand voices,
D A/C#
To sing the holy praises, of my precious Jesus
F#m D
And now with angel choirs, to lift the anthem higher
A/C# E
As my last breath expires I give my life for Thee